

Firefighter

Eleanor explains that she had to attend Northern Ireland Fire and Rescue Service (NIFRS) training school for four months. Research the NIFRS training school and describe what trainee firefighters have to do.

Eleanor describes the importance of learning and developing new skills. Why do you think it is important that a firefighter continues to learn and develop?

Eleanor describes how communication is a key skill for firefighters. Describe the three reasons she provides for firefighters needing to have good communication skills.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Outline why firefighters need to have:

Physical Strength:

Mental Strength:

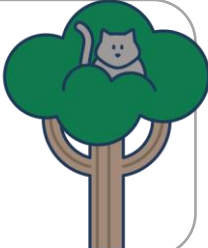

Firefighter

Can you think of any other careers that would require someone to have good physical and mental strength?

What subjects at KS4 could help you to develop your communication skills?

What subjects at KS4 could help you to develop your physical strength?

Eleanor explains that the role of a firefighter is not just about putting out fires and rescuing cats. What else do firefighters do?

Research how you can become a firefighter and work for the NIFRS. Outline the requirements and process of applying.

Firefighter

Can you think of any questions that you would like to ask Eleanor?

A large, empty rounded rectangle with a thin grey border, intended for writing questions.