

Nursing

Catherine explains that nursing is a 'varied profession.' Nurses can work in a range of different areas. Outline some of the places where nurses can work.

Catherine works in a hospital on a Respiratory Ward with patients who suffer from diseases such as asthma and COPD. Nurses can specialise in a wide range of areas. Research some of the specialist areas nurses can work in.

_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

Catherine explains that her working day lasts from 7.30am-8pm. She describes this shift as a 'long day.' Would you follow your dream career if it meant working 'long days?' Explain your answer.

Why is accurate record keeping and documentation an important part of nursing?

Nursing

Cathine discusses the Six Core Values of Nursing. Complete the table below:

Core Value	Importance for Nursing	How I have shown this value in my life
1
2
3
4
5
6

Nursing

Catherine explains that she was in a 'fortunate position' when she was choosing her A-Level subjects. What did she mean?

What difficult decision did Catherine make in 2005 and why?

Why did Catherine enjoy working as an Administrative Officer in the Royal Victoria Hospital?

Catherine is from Belfast, but she completed her Nursing Degree in Manchester. Nursing degrees are offered by a range of universities in the UK and Ireland. Research a Nursing Degree and complete the table below:

Nursing
University/College
Location
Entry Requirements
What the course involves

Nursing

Can you think of any questions that you would like to ask Catherine?

A large, empty, rounded rectangular box with a thin grey border, intended for the user to write their questions.